Life in the Fast Lane

1985 Yearbook Dedication

Bless you! I didn't know chalk made you sneeze.

Mrs. Luttrell is hard at work in the computer room during her planning period.

We, the students of Rappahannock High School, dedicate the 85 Rappahannock to Mrs. Dianne Luttrell for her outstanding accomplishments throughout the year: For introducing us to the world of Algebra, through Algebra I, and continuing our knowledge in Algebra II. She has enlightened us through explaining complex physics problems and theories. As BETA sponsor, she took members to the BETA convention for the first time in many years. For this and all of her patience, we thank her.

The teacher is supposed to send the students out in the hall to do their work when they misbehave.

How many days until Graduation Day? The day that is marked in red ink, starred, circled and probably set off with exclamation points on every seniors' calendar. As the countdown is remembered, one can hear seniors moaning about their load of projects, papers and tests. Sometimes it's hard work and good times have come to an end; but it's true, and many were torn between tears and cheers when grad day finally arrived. BUT remember seniors . . . when one door shuts, another opens.

GOOD LUCK TO THE CLASS OF '85!

Teresa Glenn
Withers

Paula Hill groans about the upcoming quiz, while Maggie Jordan takes out her notes.

Michelle Lowery and Tammy Bell garbed in Orphan Annie Klein originals.

Trente Bladerson giggles hysterically — what was in the punch Trente?

Marion Ball on the way home.

Barry Douglas in the cafeteria.

Kathy Bailey, Kim Lewis and Christine King study in the library.

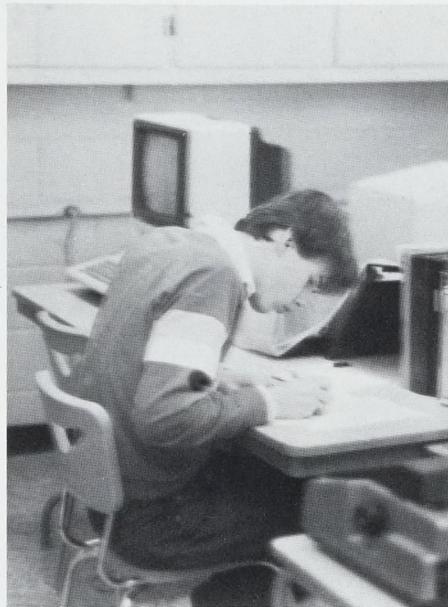

"Uh-Ooo ... she bops" Dawn Harris threatens to punch her friend.

William Rice doing last minute homework.

Jill Bain working hard.

Jimmy Sumiel getting his hair "fixed"

Tricia Childs and Lisa Packett after a hard day at school.

Sheri France and Brian White play scientist.

Donna Bennett and Amy Schefflien doing work.

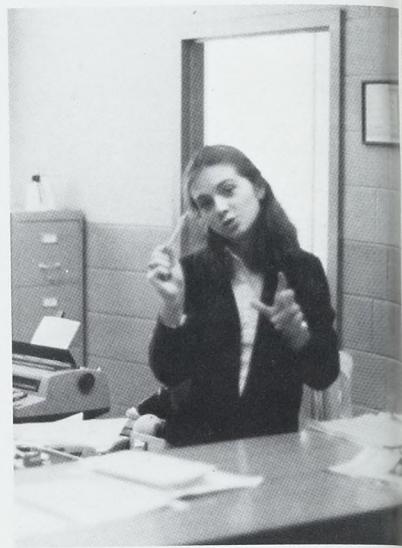

Amanda Smith — a senior among friends.

Amy Sisson (office worker and confidant to the principal) gives advice to Mr. O'dell on how to run the school.

Larry Fauntleroy gazes lovingly at the photographer while Sam Levere tells Arndrey Monroe "give me your government outline for chapter 12 ... ah-right"

How to get warm? Teri Douglas uses a friend, Jay Fidler uses a cup of cocoa, and Barry Douglas ... well ... Barry is looking for a friend.

Tricia Childs looks in her calendar and notices she has a date on Friday "that gives me five days to do my nails, wash my hair, and . . ."

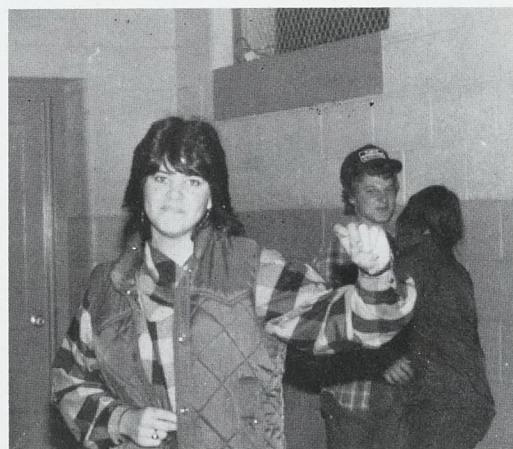

Senior Class Officers kidnap the Sheriff . . . Barry Douglas — Treasurer, Jim Byrd — Reporter, Kim Settle — President, Dallas Henderson — Vice President, Victoria Ball — Secretary.

Pat Polson, Tammy Schools and Cyndi Lewis, being the good students that they are, study stringently for a quiz.

Nancy Childs is no Michael Jackson, but she's got "the Bird" down pat.

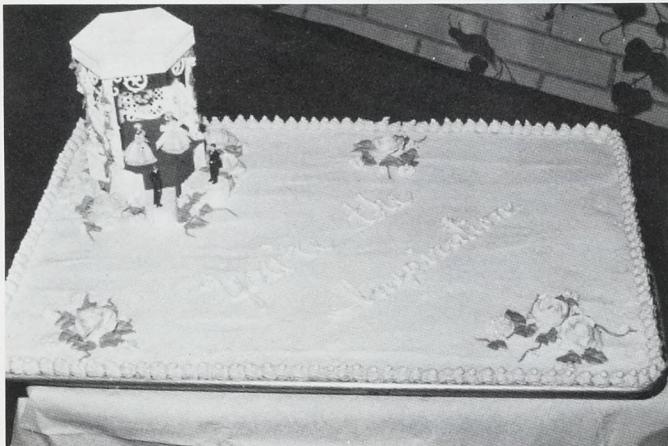

Kenny Ambrose in a tie! This really is a candid.

Jennifer Hinson and Lillian Lewis speed to the finish with their fabulously fast typing skills.

SENIOR PROM 1985

Jay and Margaret head out for a dance.

YOU'RE THE INSPIRATION

You know our love was meant to be, the kind of love that lasts forever. And I want you here with me from tonight until the end of time. You should know everywhere I go; always on my mind, in my heart, in my soul, baby . . .

You're the meaning of my life, you're the inspiration. You bring meaning to my life, you're the inspiration. Wanna have you near me, I wanna have you near me saying, no one needs you more than I need you.

And I know (yes, I know) that it's plain to see we're so in love when we're together. Now I know (now I know) that I need you here with me from tonight until the end of time, you should know everywhere I go; always on my mind, you're in my heart, in my soul.

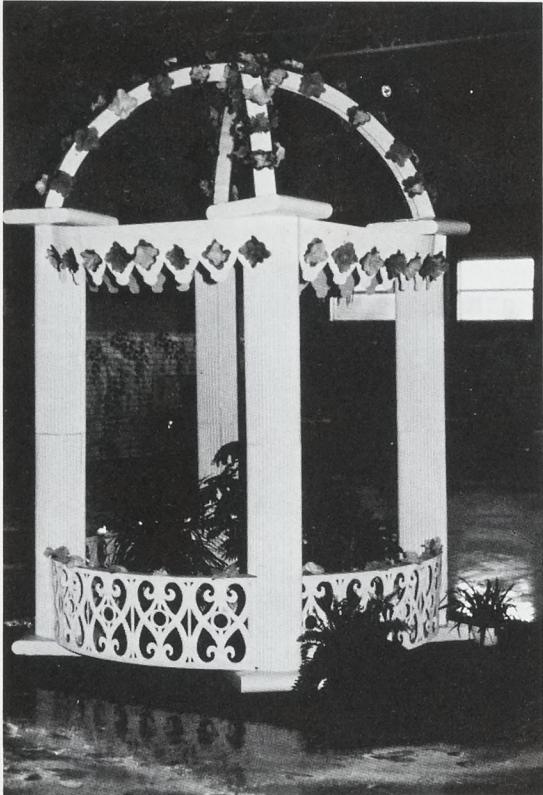

Cristal Forrester and David Harper enjoy a slow dance.

Michelle and Robert pose for a portrait.

Typical pre-prom line-up.

Kraig and Shannon enjoy themselves.

Teresa and Mathew live it up.

Dawn and Reid going to the chapel . . .

Mary and Keith await their chauffeur.

Karl wants to talk — Pam wants to dance.

Teachers party on the dance floor.

Mrs. Pierson chats with Zena, Annette, and Mary

Lee and Troy kid around while Craig and Tracie look on.

Todd and Bonnie look "marvelous" at the Prom.

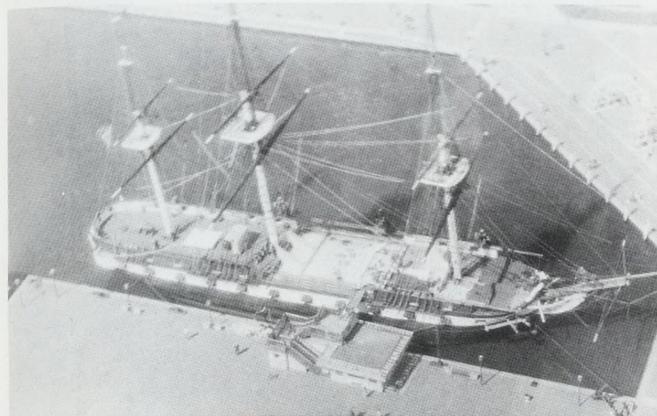

Todd and Becky — Enjoy close company.

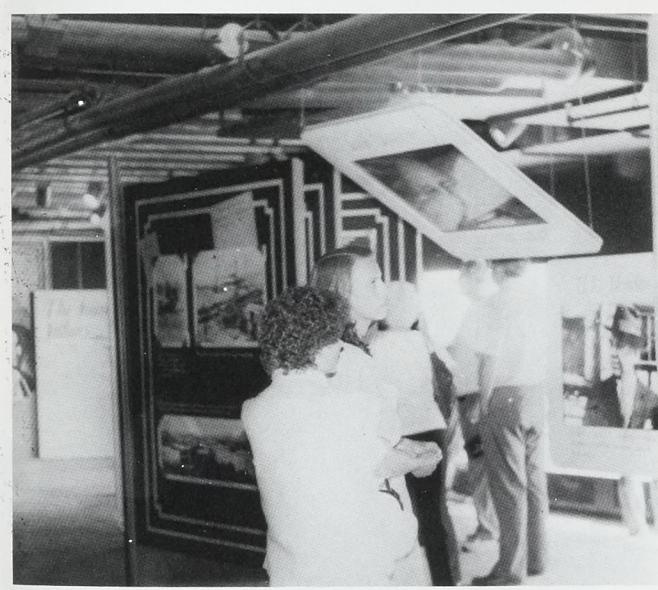

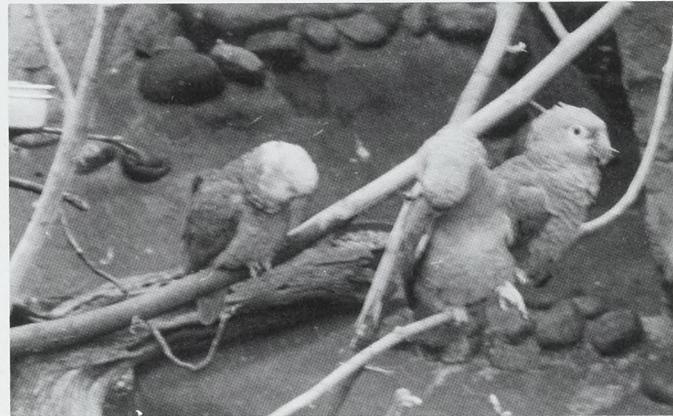

Our class has finally made it
We're the Seniors now at last,
We can think back and remember
The twelve years of the past.
For some it went by quick
For others the time went slow,
It was all a time for knowledge
All a time to grow.
The smiles and the laughter
The sorrows and the tears,
We've got a mindful of wisdom
To help us through the years.
We made our friends and lost them
And had our share of fights,
We tried to show all others
We could stand up for our rights.
The teachers, they've all helped us
By teaching us what we know,
We'll remember the knowledge and the wisdom
Wherever we may go
The future is our decision
We've learned what we need,
The Seniors will remember Rappahannock
To where our lives may lead.

SENIOR TRIP: BALTIMORE — Inner Harbor

Views of Baltimore from the top of the World Trade Center.
The National Aquarium is home to many animals.

Mrs. Pruett and Miss Frank observe famous Baltimoreans.

The Seniors hit Baltimore!

Lisa and Amy pose in front of Mr. Crab at the Science Museum.

John and Sam can't wake up and be at school at 7:00 a.m.

OW! It bit me!

Patricia and Dawn use their energy to paddle in the harbor.

Ya'll look great, but take the price tag off first.

Jill and Cynthia stroll around Baltimore.

After walking all day John really stretches out.

Dawn, Jennifer, Amy, and Tricia try to start a party in Baltimore.

Seniors show their style in the city.

Phillip, Lori, William, and Trent check this place out.

This is the life for Kim, Teri, Lisa, Tammy, and Pat.

The girls prepare for graduation.

Tension and excitement fills the air.

The guys pose for one last picture before moving on to bigger and better things.

"Looking Good!"

Your contributions were appreciated greatly. Thanks to: Rev. Bill Slater, Mrs. Meta Sampson, Mr. Karl O'Dell, Rev. Joseph Toliver.

The 1985 honor students are Phillip Carter, Tammy Schools, Kim Settle, Paula Hill, and Pat Polson.

Mr. O'Dell says farewell to the graduating class of 1985

Kim Settle opens the graduation ceremony with a cheery welcome.

Karen Packett receives her diploma with a little help.

The graduates of 1985 are ready to go out and look the world over.
